SHELTER MEDICINE 101

Karen Dashfield, DVM

During this session we will discuss practical techniques that will allow your shelter or rescue to develop and apply an effective disease control program within your facility or group. Topics will include preventative medicine and basic procedures for caring for animals that do fall ill within your care. From intake procedures, sanitation and animal flow within your facility or foster homes to best practices for responding to an infectious disease while animals are in your care, we will focus on common challenges faced by shelters and rescues. You will be encouraged to actively participate in this session to allow for an open exchange of ideas and a focus on topics that apply to your local needs. A practical guide to additional resources will also be provided.

3:45 pm – 5 pm

TRAINING SHELTER DOGS

Jenn Barg

Animal welfare professionals have a responsibility to provide true quality of life for each dog in their program. This workshop covers the importance of achieving and maintaining quality of life for dogs in shelters. Training, behavior modification programs, and mental, behavioral and emotional stimulation for dogs will be covered. We will explore some fun and easy ways to train adoptable dogs so they can put their best paw forward. Shelter dogs will be used for demonstration.

Our Speakers

KAREN MEADER, PETCO

Karen is the national adoption program manager covering the Midwest, Northeast, Mid-Atlantic and Southeast regions for Petco for the past three years. Prior to her current role, she was the regional marketing coordinator for the Southeast and a general manager and operations manager for Petco stores in Florida for a total of 10 years with the company. In addition, she has been able to attend many animal welfare conferences hosted by organizations such as the Society of Animal Welfare Administrators, the Humane Society of the United States, the ASPCA, Best Friends Animal Society and Petfinder. She has also attended an animal control officer certification course and received certification at the end of the course. She currently has five rescue pets -- three cats and two dogs -- and lives on the East Coast of Florida with her husband and son.

MELISSA VECERA, PETFINDER

Melissa is a shelter outreach specialist for Petfinder. She has over seven years of volunteer experience, including writing press releases and attending meet-and-greet events on behalf of the Mid-Atlantic Great Dane Rescue League, Inc., and hands-on shelter experience at the MDSPCA. She currently manages the North American Adoption Options conference series as well as all Petfinder webinars. She works near Baltimore, MD, and shares her home with a Dachshund named Lily, whom she found on Petfinder.

LINDA REIDER, MICHIGAN HUMANE SOCIETY

Linda Reider is the director of statewide initiatives for the Michigan Humane Society, which operates three open-admission adoption centers and full-service veterinary centers, one satellite adoption center and six offsite cat centers in the greater Detroit area. She works to better connect animal shelters and rescue groups statewide through the Michigan Partnership for Animal Welfare (MPAW) state federation. Linda travels the state, visiting and advising animal shelters and rescue groups, represents MHS on state-level committees, is a founding board member of the Michigan State Animal Response Team and works on pet-related legislation. Linda holds B.S. and M.S. degrees, plus a certificate in nonprofit business and management, and has held various positions in the animal welfare field for the past 28 years. She lives with a bossy old Pekingese and her son's two hairy cats.

KAREN DASHFIELD, DVM, ANTLER RIDGE WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

Dr. Dashfield is a shelter veterinarian with 21 years of experience designing disease control programs for shelters, kennels and wildlife rehabilitators throughout New Jersey. As director of Sussex County Animal Response Team (CART), she initiated and ran a shelter for Hurricane Katrina Dogs in 2005/2006 that received, re-homed and reunited over 200 animals. As a house call veterinarian, Dr. Dashfield provides regular consultation with shelter and rescue groups and is the full-time medical director at Antler Ridge Wildlife Sanctuary (www.antler-ridge.com). She shares her home with her five dogs, Red, Dusty, Bella, Sadie and Pollywog, and a cat named Princess.

JENN BARG, MS, ACAAB, CDBC

Jenn is the shelter manager for Pueblo Animal Services, an open-admission facility in southern Colorado that takes in roughly 7000 animals annually. She has been a student of animal behavior since 1990 with both bachelor's and master's degrees in biology. From 2006 to 2011, she was self-employed as a dog behavior consultant; shelters contracted with her to implement behavior programs and evaluations. From 2002 to 2008, she worked for the Upper Valley Humane Society as the head of behavior and training and as head behavior consultant. She has served the New England Federation of Humane Societies and is currently a board member of the Colorado Federation of Animal Welfare Agencies. Jenn is an associate certified animal behaviorist and also a certified dog behavior consultant.
